CAREER FAIR – 2025

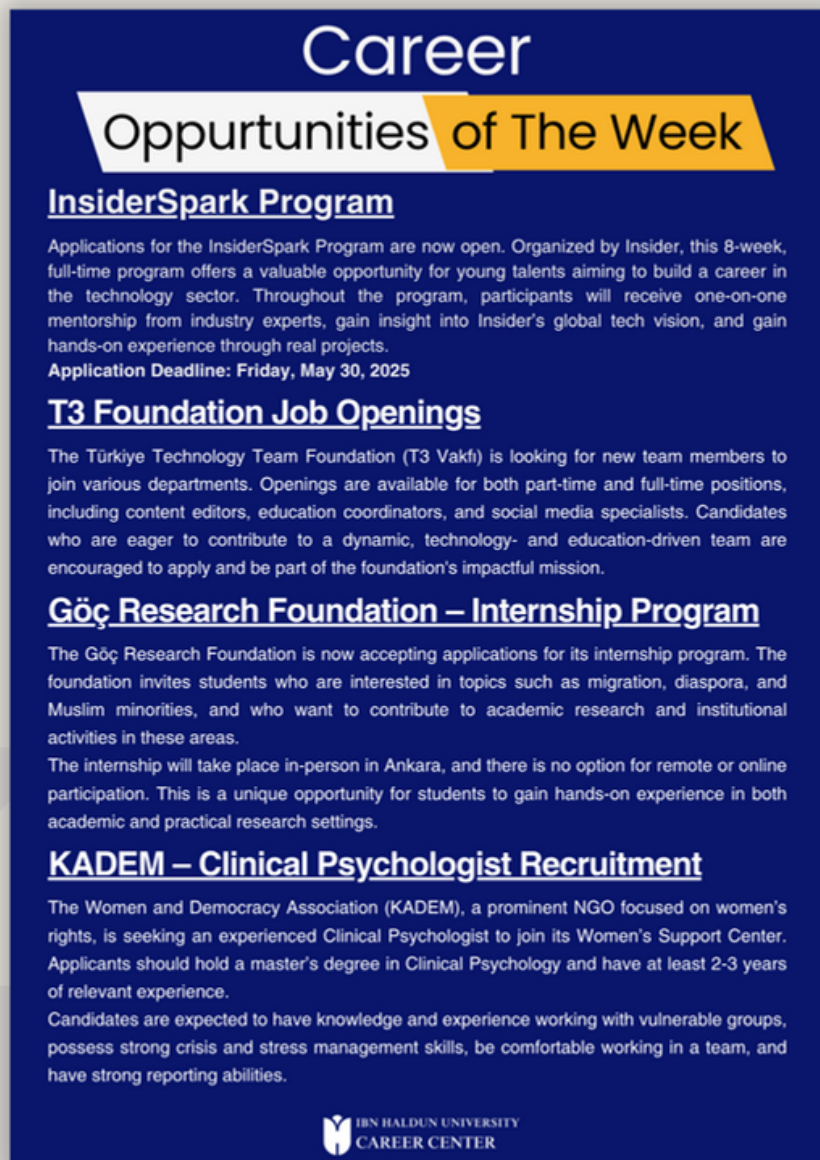

Within the scope of the 2nd Career Fair,

- With the participation of 25 external stakeholders and 4 internal units,
- One-on-one interview with Anadolu Agency,
- Group interviews with Turkish Airlines and Kuveyt Turk were held.

60 Internship, Job and Scholarship Postings Shared

- 31 students started their internships.
- Job, internship and scholarship opportunities were presented to you in the "Career Opportunities of the Week" format.

Career Opportunities of The Week

InsiderSpark Program

Applications for the InsiderSpark Program are now open. Organized by Insider, this 8-week, full-time program offers a valuable opportunity for young talents aiming to build a career in the technology sector. Throughout the program, participants will receive one-on-one mentorship from industry experts, gain insight into Insider's global tech vision, and gain hands-on experience through real projects.

Application Deadline: Friday, May 30, 2025

T3 Foundation Job Openings

The Türkiye Technology Team Foundation (T3 Vakfı) is looking for new team members to join various departments. Openings are available for both part-time and full-time positions, including content editors, education coordinators, and social media specialists. Candidates who are eager to contribute to a dynamic, technology- and education-driven team are encouraged to apply and be part of the foundation's impactful mission.

Göç Research Foundation – Internship Program

The Göç Research Foundation is now accepting applications for its internship program. The foundation invites students who are interested in topics such as migration, diaspora, and Muslim minorities, and who want to contribute to academic research and institutional activities in these areas.

The internship will take place in-person in Ankara, and there is no option for remote or online participation. This is a unique opportunity for students to gain hands-on experience in both academic and practical research settings.

KADEM – Clinical Psychologist Recruitment

The Women and Democracy Association (KADEM), a prominent NGO focused on women's rights, is seeking an experienced Clinical Psychologist to join its Women's Support Center. Applicants should hold a master's degree in Clinical Psychology and have at least 2-3 years of relevant experience.

Candidates are expected to have knowledge and experience working with vulnerable groups, possess strong crisis and stress management skills, be comfortable working in a team, and have strong reporting abilities.
