Special Requirements:

- Candidates applying with a bachelor's degree must be a graduate of the Department of Psychology, Counseling Psychology or a Faculty of Medicine, and candidates applying with a master's degree must graduate from the fields of Clinical Psychology and Health Psychology, Trauma Psychology, and Applied Psychology. In addition to the letter of intent, candidates are expected to apply with a research proposal, preferably in English.
- Having a bachelor degree in law from law schools in Turkey or outside Turkey. Law schools outside Turkey must be recognized by YÖK (Higher Education Board of Turkey).
- The letter of intent must be written in English. In addition, candidates are asked to submit an article -preferably published and preferably in English. Examples of Articles are either published articles, a part of a master's thesis, or any academic article written during the education period.
- Candidates who don't have an English score can also apply. They may be offered English preparation program after they pass scientific evaluation exam and get acceptance for the program.
- Candidates who don't have a bachelor's or master's degree from the school of communication have to complete a scientific preparation program for one or two semesters after they pass scientific evaluation exams.
- Candidates who are Counseling Psychology or Psychology graduates can apply to this program.
- For those applying with a bachelor's degree and a master's degree, a bachelor's and/or master's degree in Psychology or related fields. Applications of students from outside the field of Psychology or PDR may also be accepted. However, candidates who apply to the Psychology PhD program with a bachelor's degree from outside the field of Psychology and PDR must take two semesters of Psychology scientific preparation courses decided by the department. Candidates whose bachelor's degree is from outside the field of Psychology and whose master's degree is from the field of Psychology are required to take two semesters of Psychology scientific preparation courses if their basic psychology knowledge is not deemed sufficient by the jury members if they are successful in the oral exam.
- The letter of intent should be written in English.
- Graduates of the Faculty of Education, those who have graduated from other fields and have a pedagogical formation certificate, those who have worked in educational institutions for at least 1 year or those who are working in the education-related units of public or private sector institutions and organizations can apply to the program.
- Must be written specifically for the program, explaining just why the candidate wants to do a MA in this field.

Note: Candidates who want to apply for a doctorate with a bachelor's degree must have at least 80 points in the ALES exam and a 3.00/4.00-grade point average as an undergraduate GPA.
